

Marine Seismic in Mackenzie River - Fort Norman Area N.W.T.

1. The first section of the report describes the general geology of the Mackenzie River area, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

2. The second section describes the seismic survey methods used, including the type of equipment used and the procedures followed.

3. The third section describes the results of the seismic survey, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

4. The fourth section describes the interpretation of the seismic data, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

5. The fifth section describes the conclusions of the seismic survey, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

6. The sixth section describes the recommendations for further work, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

7. The seventh section describes the acknowledgments, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

8. The eighth section describes the references, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

9. The ninth section describes the appendices, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

10. The tenth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

11. The eleventh section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

12. The twelfth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

13. The thirteenth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

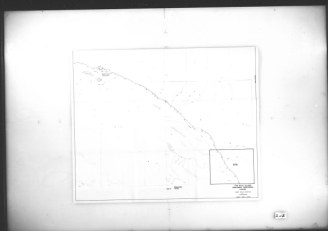

14. The fourteenth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

15. The fifteenth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

16. The sixteenth section describes the index, including the location of the river and the surrounding land area.

1-9-5-18 Marine Seismic in Mackenzie River - Fort Norman Area NWT

1-9-5-18 Marine Seismic in Mackenzie River - Fort Norman Area NWT

