

45-8-4-76 Final Report on Gravity Survey - Rabbitskin R.

1. The purpose of this survey was to determine the gravity values at various points along the survey line.

2. The survey was conducted on a clear day, and the weather was favorable.

3. The survey was conducted using a gravity meter, and the results were recorded in the field notes.

4. The survey was conducted using a gravity meter, and the results were recorded in the field notes.

5. The survey was conducted using a gravity meter, and the results were recorded in the field notes.

6. The survey was conducted using a gravity meter, and the results were recorded in the field notes.

7. The survey was conducted using a gravity meter, and the results were recorded in the field notes.

